

THE UNIVERSITY of York

YORK MINSTER'S GREAT EAST WINDOW

CREATION, CONTEXT & CONSERVATION

AUTUMN 2008 MASTER-CLASS

25-26 November 2008

Bedern Hall and the King's Manor, York

Conference fee: £80.00 per person

This two-day event will explore the context in which John Thornton's great east window of York Minster was conceived and created, and the circumstances in which it is soon to be conserved as part of the ambitious York Minster Revealed programme. It will be held in the historic Bedern Hall close to the Minster, and the King's Manor, once the home of the medieval abbot of St Mary's Abbey and now home of the University's new MA in Stained Glass Conservation and Heritage Management.

Day One: CONTEXT

Tuesday 25 November, Bedern Hall, York

- | | |
|------|---|
| 1000 | Coffee and Registration |
| 1030 | Welcome and Introduction- Sarah Brown, University of York |
| 1045 | English Glass-Painting c1380-1400 - Anna Eavis, Corpus Vitreum |
| 1145 | Master Bertram's Apocalypse altarpiece in the V&A - Nicola Costaras, Victoria & Albert Museum |
| 1230 | Discussion |
| 1245 | Lunch (buffet provided) |
| 1400 | The East Window in the Choir of York Minster - Professor Christopher Norton, Centre for Medieval Studies, University of York |

- 1445 The Old Testament Cycle in the East Window – Why is it there? - Professor Nigel Morgan, University of Cambridge
- 1530 Tea
- 1600 Discussion and close by 16.30

DAY TWO: CONSERVATION

Wednesday, 26 November, The King's Manor

- 0945 An Introduction to the East Front Project - Andrew Arrol, Surveyor to the Fabric, York Minster
- 1030 The archaeology of the East Front and a strategy for stone conservation - Alex Holton, University of York & Lee Godfrey, Masons' Yard, York Minster
- 1115 Coffee
- 1145 The conservation of the glass - Sarah Brown, York Glaziers Trust
- 1230 Lunch (delegates to make own arrangements)
- 1400 Site Visits
- Stone
 - Glass
- 1615 Tea and Discussion
- 1645 Close

(detach here)

I/We wish to take part in this event, and enclose a cheque for £80.00 per person (includes lunch and refreshments on day one and refreshments but not lunch on day 2)

Name(s) and Address:

Email/telephone:

Date:

Please complete this form and return it, together with your remittance, to Pam Ward, Postgraduate Administrator, Centre for Conservation, The University of York, The King's Manor, York YO1 7EP by no later than Wednesday 19th November 2008.

Cheques should be made payable to The University of York. Participants from overseas may pay in cash on arrival. Tel: 01904 433997; email: pab11@york.ac.uk